

Spouse Education Resources

Points of Contact for education advising

Base Education Center:

- Mainside, 13 Area/BLDG 1331, 760-725-6414 or 6660
- School of Infantry, 52 Area/BLDG 520512, 760-725-0606
- Email: cpec@usmc.mil

Military OneSource (SECO counselors):

- 1-800-342-9647
- <https://myseco.militaryonesource.mil/portal/>

MySECO

College Search Engines

College Navigator:

<https://nces.ed.gov/collegenavigator/>

College Scorecard:

<https://collegescorecard.ed.gov/>

Navigator

Scorecard

Career Search Engines

Occupational Outlook Handbook:

<https://www.bls.gov/ooh/>

O*Net Online:

<https://www.onetonline.org/>

Occupational Handbook

O*Net

Spouse Education Resources

Financial Aid Resources

MyCAA/My Career Advancement Account:

MyCAA

- Up to $4000 for a license, certificate, or associate's degree program for approved military spouses;
- Spouses' eligibility based on rank and status of service member. See the website for more info: <https://mycaa.militaryonesource.mil/mycaa/>

Federal Financial Aid/FAFSA:

FAFSA

- All U.S. citizens and approved non-residents can apply for FAFSA to see if they qualify for financial aid! There's federal, state, and school types of funding available.
- <https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa>
- Types of funding in California:
 - California community colleges- California College Promise Grant (tuition fee waiver)
 - State- CalGrant
 - Federal- Pell Grant, Teach Grant, student loans
- Check with your financial aid office for more information!

Check with the BEC for scholarship information!

Additional on-base resources:

FMEAP (Family Member Employment Assistance Program)

- Mainside, 13 Area/BLDG 13150, 760-829-0305
- Email: cpfmeap@usmc.mil
- Vast assistance in all things related to military spouses & family members seeking employment. Amazing program for military spouses!

Base Library (three locations plus a bookmobile):

- Email: mccspendletonlibrary@usmc-mccs.org
- MWR Library online: <https://www.dodmwrlibraries.org/>

DoD MWR Library