Military Child Care In Your Neighborhood (MCCYN)

How It Works

MCCYN is a fee assistance program that keeps affordable child care in reach for eligible families. It's intended for families who cannot access installation-based care due to distance or waitlists. With fee assistance, a portion of the child care is paid to reduce the cost of what families would pay for care in their communities. This makes it easier for families to afford quality care from local community providers.

Families access MCCYN through MilitaryChildCare.com, a secure DoD gateway to military-operated and military-sponsored child care options. It provides a single online location for families to determine their MCCYN eligibility, explore qualifying providers, and request assistance.

Who is Eligible?

Army, Air Force, Marine, and Navy Families

MCCYN is available to active duty members, Reservists on active duty, civilians, and Army and Air Force Gold Star spouses who:

1. Are stationed at an installation that has been pre-identified as fee assistance eligible or,
2. Do not live near a DoD installation with a Child and Youth program.

If the sponsor is married, his or her spouse must be employed, actively seeking employment, or a full-time student.

Department of Defense Civilian Families

DoD has expanded MCCYN to assist employees of other DoD agencies and field activities such as employees of the Defense Logistics Agency (DLA), National Reconnaissance Office (NRO), and the Office of Net Assessment (ONA). If the employee is married, his or her spouse must be employed, actively seeking employment, or a full-time student.

U.S. Coast Guard Families

USCG MCCYN is available to active duty members and Reservists on Active Duty Orders for at least 180 days.

If the USCG member is married, his or her spouse must be employed a minimum of 20 hours a week, actively seeking employment, or enrolled in higher-education coursework.
