- * Large Civilian Team (60+ Members)- This award is for large groups of volunteers. The group may include any combination of Active Duty and civilian volunteers. *Please note that if the volunteer team is strictly Active Duty and from the same unit you will need to use the Small, Medium, or Large Unit Volunteer of the Year form.
- * Small Unit (5-299 Service Members)- This award is for Active Duty or Reserve Units.
- * Medium Unit (300-599 Service Members)- This award is for Active Duty or Reserve Units.
- * Large Unit (600+ Service Members)- This award is for Active Duty or Reserve Units.

Nominator Qualifications

Nominator must be a Service Organization Representative, Deployment Readiness Coordinator/Uniformed Readiness Coordinator, Officer or SNCO. *It is highly recommended that individuals within Chains of Command review nominations for all awards prior to submission.

Volunteer of the Year Selection Process

All nominations are reviewed by a committee of volunteers with one representative from each of the following areas: Field Grade Officer, Staff NCO, NCO, Marine & Family Programs Staff Member, Military Spouse, and Volunteer. The Installation Volunteer Coordinator does NOT participate in the selection process.

Volunteer of the Year nominations for Military, Family Readiness, Civilian, and Youth are reviewed and weighed equally based on the following criteria:

- *Total Number of Hours Volunteer Served in 2022
- *Role of the Volunteer/Position they served in
- *Impact to the community

Volunteer of the Year nominations for Civilian and Unit Teams are reviewed by the same selection committee and are rated on the following criteria:

- *Total Number of Hours the Volunteers Served in 2022
- *Types of activities in which the Organization/Unit volunteers participated
- *Impact to the community

How to Submit Your Nomination

- Do not fax, scan, or hand deliver nominations. All nominations can be submitted as a Word, Apple, or Google document. Email nominations directly to the Installation Volunteer Coordinator.
- Items Needed to submit a Nomination:
  - Volunteer of the Year Nomination Form.
  - Write-Up: Limit your write-up to one page. Do not hand-write.
    - Include why the volunteer deserves to be the Volunteer of the Year, examples of volunteer service and the impact it had in the community, total volunteering hours. Also include volunteer service done with other units/organizations.

A Guide to Writing a Nomination is available. Email CPenVolunteer@usmc-mccs.org to request your copy.
